Adventures among Savages.

" All we want in to be let alone."-Jeff Davis The following extract from a letter to a gentleman in Connecticut, from his friend n Knoxville, Tennessee, illustrates the influences at work to drive that state into re

KNOXYILLE, May 9, 1861.

DEAR —: I am writing at the office, but in what country it is the Lord only knows. Be that as it may, the Devil's thousand years are up and he is let loose among us. I cannot begin to tell you of the actu-al condition of things. Union men are threatened with death in almost every shape if they persist in making public speeches. Andrew Johnson and Thos. A. R. Nelson were stopped at Blountvillo yesterday, and Bepartments of Beck-keeping and Accounts.
threats are made openly that any man who organized and conducted upon the Countries Room threats are made openly that any man who attempts it here will be shot upon the stand. There are about $60 soldiers here now, most of them from Monroe and Meigs county, of the most worthless, desperate class of men. the most worthless, desperate class of men, and frenzied by liquor. Among them is one Wash Morgan, who is part Indian, and is captain of a company of spirits of the same class, but if possible more wicked than himself. Day before yesterday the stars and stripes were floating from the Union pole, and was making a few remarks to a crowd of Union men. Among them was Charles Douglass, who is a strong Union man and is not remarkably prudent about denounc-ing secessionists. It so happened that, on this occasion, Morgan and two of his men were near him, and taking offence at what he said, fired their pistols at him. As Douglass was unarmed, he started for his house, the others following and firing. Nine shots were fired in all, but Douglass escaped with slight flesh wounds. He was near his store at the time, and as soon as he could get his gun they were off like "quar-ter-horses." Morgan ran to Sackey's stable, jumped on a horse, and ran him to the fair grounds, where his men were dynartered. As soon as possible back the cowardly ras-cal came, with 400 men to kill one man.— The citizens commenced arriving, determined to defend him, but ____ and ___ succeeded in stopping Morgan and his men in East Knoxville, and turned them back to camp, thereby preventing a general fight.

When Morgan was shooting at Douglass, one of his balls struck an old man from the country who was in town on business, causing his death in a few hours. Yesterday Morgan got a hack and came round by the back way to the Lamar House, and, in at the "Ladies' Entrance," accompanied by several of his gang, went into one of the chambers and shot Douglass, who was standing by his wife in his own house with his window closed, the ball passing through his breast. He is still alive, but thought to be mortally wounded.

No acrests have been made (which shows the power of the civil authority,) and Morgan is to-day in high favor with the secessionists.

HOW THEY HANG, SHOOT AND BURN FOLKS. A letter from a young lady at Evansville, Ind., dated May 5, contains a description of outrages committed by these southern traitors. She says:

"For the last few days our city has been literally filled with deserters from the southern army, and they are, or seem to be, the happiest men alive to get on free soil again. They are all for the Union, but had been forced into the southern army. There were five of these men who came up from Memphis on Friday; they were in lather's store, and told him how they were treated; they went south with several boat loads of tobacco for the purpose of selling it; there were thirty men in all. I believe; they were taken from their boats, and had to choose between joining the southern army or having all the hair shaved off their heads, hav ing a number of lashes on the bare back, and being put in prison for thirty days up on a diet of bread and water. What do you think of that? I think it is perfectly brutal. Size of the men were true to the Union—five who told this story; the others (29)-joined the arms, but intend to escape. The five men had all the hair shaved off their heads; and their backs were terribly mutilated. They escaped from prison and ran all the way to the river, and got aboard the boat which brought them here. Another young man, by the name of James, told father his story yesterday. He is also a deserter. He said, the secessionists tried to force him and four companions to join their army. Three of them said they would not do it; that they preferred death, and all three of them were hung on the nearest tree, in the presence of all the soldiers and their comrades. The fourth one called them cowards, traitors, thieves, and tounted and cursed them, when they poured cold tar over him and set fire to it! Mr. James joined the army. At night he was awakened by some one crawling over his body. He asked what they were doing They said they were going to desert. He joined them. When he got outside of the camp, be ran until he came to a railroad station. It so happened that he had money enough to take him to Memphis, where he got on the boat and never stopped until he reached our place. He does not know what became of those that left with him, as he ran faster than they and left them behind. At the time he was forced to join the army, he was at Pensacola, and it was there when the three men were hung and the one was

CONDITION AND VIEWS OF SENATOR DOUG-As. - A late number of the Cleveland Plaindealer savs:

" Col. Todd, just arrived from Chicago, reports that Senator Douglas is laboring nder a severe attack of rheumatism.-While at Columbus a swelling commenced on one of his fingers which he supposed to be a felon. At Springfield the swelling had run up the arm and was extremely painful. He had then his finger lanced, and made his speech before the logislature under these painful circumstances. At Chicago he was forced into National Hall, (late Wigwam,) made a speech, and was carried home, where he has been confined to his bed ever since "He thinks the test time has come for this American people, and for the world, when the people's ability of self-government is to be fully tried. He has confidence in its principles from the fact that he finds himself, and hosts of like party men; capable of forgetting all past political differences for the public good. He thinks there will be hard fighting salong the border during the summer, and hopes it, may end there. But it may be necessary to invade the south in order to conquer a sure peace."

Legislative and Military Matters at Madison.

We visited Madison yesterday, and found both branches of the legislature engaged in perfecting the war bills. The senate has passed a bill to raise five regiments of men for the war, and if the general government should call for the whole of them, then two more regiments are to be recruited, put into camp and drilled, at the expense of the state, to be ready for any other call made by the United States authorities. There were a large number of amendments to the original bill, so much so that when it reached the assembly that body ordered it printed over again for their own use. It will come before the latter body to-day, for its final

In the assembly, yesterday, the loan bill was the subject of discussion, and occupied the afternoon till six o'clock. It received numerous amendments, and when finally ordered to be engrossed had few of the features of the bill as originally reported. Instead of requiring gold and silver for the bonds sold, which will not exceed a million of dollars in the whole, it prescribes that bills of banks of this state, secured by the stocks of Wisconsin and the United States, may be received. No stock of this kind, once pledged for the security of bills can be withdrawn and others substituted for them. Upon a direct vote the friends smaller than their brethren on the low wet of the principle of receiving nothing but specie for the bonds came within one vote of carrying it. There is a strong and growing feeling in the legislature in opposition to shin plasters of all kinds, and there were several good speeches on that side of the question both in the assembly and the senate. The Secretary of State is included with the Governor and State Treasurer in the board for the disposal of the bonds, and no formal bids are made necessary by the bill, as it now stands. It will, probably, be passed this forenoon and sent to the senate, where it will most likely be amended in various particulars. There is a disposition to limit the price of the bonds to par, and others have an idea that a circulating medium can be made by issuing them in small amounts, payable at a short time, and receivable for state dues. How much mistaken these theorists are, can only be certainly known by a trial of it. Others are in favor of converting the whole school fund into state securities, as fast as possible, and abolishing the system of loaning it upon real estate securities. They

It is probable that a law will be passed giving volunteers who have families a certain specific sum per month out of the state treasury, instead of investing towns and cities with authority to tax themselves for this object. The former would be the as though it were a holiday show, and even cheapest and most direct way of doing this wondered why their valuant sons, brothers act of justice, and would have the merits and husbands, should surrender to such "a of uniformity and putting the burden upon the whole state, instead of those portions which furnish the most volunteers.

.We spent a short time at Camp Randall, which is at the state fair grounds. We found, Capt. Ely's company comfortably quartered. They have had, however, dreary time amid the rain and mud during the last ten days. The old sheds, with their carled up and shrunken roof hoards. leaked badly, notwithstanding the attempt ky (her daughter) would most dutifully to stop the cracks with mortar. The use of lime and sand to mend a roof is a new ides, but will never be patented by the inventor, as it is liable to the objection, of dissolving and running down into the eyes and mouths of the sleepers below. The governor gave orders to supply the boys with shingle, nails and hammers, and they have just completed good roofs for their quarters, which should have been done at first. They are rather proud of their exploit in carpentry, and show a good job which shields them from the storms, and makes them quite comfortable. Our volunieers are second to none in the regiment in any respect. They have just filled up their ranks to 101, and when they get their arms, and have had a short time for drill arms, and have had a short time for drill Union. It will not do. The true issue is with them, will not fear a comparison with Shall this government be broken up be any in the west.

WHY THE SOUTH REDELS .- George Wilkes, the editor of the Spirit of the Times, writes to the New York Tribune as follows: Southern people misunderstand us. and. in fact despise us, in so vital a particular that we are not fit to live together until both are forced to a mutual respect. They actually look upon us in regard to courage as little better than so many Chinamen of Sepoys, and the secret of this whole rebel not any new endangerment of sla very, but the revolt of a set of barons, who for thirty years have encouraged themselves to believe they are of a superior race, and fencied they had hit upon a proper period to withdraw and prove it. Though essentially aristocratical in all their sentiments and institutions, they had maintained an alliance with the democratic party, because they had certain commercial principles in common, but they promptly sacrificed that party as soon as their mistaken pride had culminated, and left it captive in the hands of the republicans. It was some time before the democracy could understand the philosophy of this action by its aristocratic ally; but the depth of the desertion broke upon it in the acknewledgments of such men as Yancey, Keitt and Rhett, while the recently-developed predictions of statesmen like Calhoun coabled it to realize the uses to which it had been put. The result is that the indignant democratic party now stands foremost in this war, and seeks a fresh ascendency by new devotion to the nation. It will not be hasty to form new alliances with a party which acknowledges that all its tendencies are aristocratical, and FORWARD MARCH!-The concentration of large masses of troops at Fort Monroe, it is alleged, is for a purpose of re-captur-ing the Gosport government navyyard, and driving the insurgents out of Norfolk. It is also hinted that a strong column will push its way up the James river to Richmond, at the same time that the main army crosses the Potomac and takes up its line of march for the rebel capital. It is reported that this army will consist of 5,000 regulars and 25,000 volunteers,-a force which the traitors have not the means to resist. About the time these operations commence a division of Pennsylvania and Ohio troops are to march from Chambersburg upon Harper's Ferry and dislodge the tories there posted who are said to be poorly equipped, and short of provisions.

whose main maxim, as uttered by one of its leading statesmen, is, that "all labor is dangerous."

The troops of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota and several regiments from Ohio, it is expected will march on Memphis, following both the river and railroad routes. The batteries along the river will be taken or silenced, and the railway repaired, where the bridges are destroyed or the rails removed. Once cleared of secessionists both avenues of communication can easily be kept open by the loyal forces.

Memphis is more healthy than Cairo. is situated on a high bluff; the soil is dry, grounds about Cairo. Memphis is a far healthier place for the army to spend the hot and sickly season than where a portion of it is now encamped, at Camp Deliance. It is furthermore the key point of the south-west held by the rebels. Should it fall into the hands of the soldiers of the republic, the insurgents would be terribly weakened. Its loss to them would be a fatal blow, as it would render the capture of New Orleans certain, and place the whole line of the Mississippi in the possession of the patriots.

If the order to advance on Memphis be given simultaneously with that for the march on Richmond, a splendid and exciting rivalry will spring up between the troops of the northwest and the soldiers of the east, which will first reach their destina-The 4th of July should and can be celebrated by the two patriotic armies in Richmond and Memphis. The terrible lesson of yesterday may do them good, but we fear not, for they were on the street last night amid the excited crowds, where pistols and knives were used freely.

> FOR THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. -The following paragraphs are from the Frankfort Commonwealth, of Wednesday: VIRGINIA VS KENTUCKY .- It has been a generally received opinion that whenever the Ancient Dominion took snuff, Kentucneeze. That's an old fogy idea, and ought to be laid aside. Kentucky will never permit a rabid and fanatical minority to saddle her with secession, and bully her out of the Union, as Virginia was saddled and bullied. Never, no never. The Union men of Kentucky will not consent to be transferred to Jeff Davis like so many chattels. Mind, that if any such attempt is made in this state, it will be the signal for civil war, and the Union men will rise in their might and crush out the last vestige of secession in Kentucky. ON THAT THEY ARE DE-TERMINED. They have stood as much as they can already. Better not crowd them too far.

THE TRUE ISSUE .- The disunion papers and orators are trying to make the present state of public affairs a personal matter between Abe Lincoln and Jeff Davis. They hope in this way to enlist southern sympathy, and gerrymander Kentucky out of the cause Breckinridge was not elected president, and we go into a state of anarchy and mob rule, or, shall this glorious gov ernment, the best government the world

In describing his experience, he says he saw a man with three stones under his arm and one in his hand, pelting away at the troops when he fired at him, and, to use Tyler's |ed. own language, "the man dropped the bricks and laid down." Last Night's Report.

Sr. Louis, May 21. Major General Price, commander in chief of the Missouri militia, arrived last night. This forencon he had an interview with Gen. Harney, when a plan was agreed up-on for the maintenance of peace, and avoiding further conflicts between the state and federal governments.

They mutually declare a common object for restoring peace and good order to the people of the state, in subordination to the laws of the general and state governments, and unite in recommending all persons to respect each others rights throughout the state, and make no attempt to exercise unadvised powers, as it is the determination of the proper anthorities to suppress all unlawful proceedings, which can only disturb the public peace. Gen. Price pledges the whole power of the state officers to maintain order among the people of the state, and Gen. Harney declares that he has no wish to make mili tary movements which might otherwise create excitements and jealousies which he most earnestly wished to avoid. They therefore enjoin upon the people to attend to their civil business and express the hope. that unquiet elements which have threatened seriously to disturb the public peace may scon subside and be remembered only. to be deplored.

No better illustration of the weapons to which secession resorts has been furnished than the closing of the public schools in Missouri, the school fund having been diverted to secession. Secessionists know that ignorance is a most effectual ally in such a cause.

The Louisville Journal says:-We have reason to know that the pros tration of business in Tennessee, and the consequent depression and oppression of the people are deplorable. We have personal knowledge that landed property in one of the chief cities of that state, for which five thousand dollars was but lately offered, cannot now be sold for five hundred We doubt whether two hundred in cash could be obtained for it. Men who live in hired houses cannot pay their rents. The payment of debts is to be arrested by legal enactment. Distress is universal. Right in this condition of affairs, the Tennessee legislature passes a bill to raise five million of dollars to sustain the State in its seces sion. Where a citizen of Tennessee has hitherto paid a state tax of $100, he is now to be called upon by the tax gatherer for eleven times that amount—probably for fifteen or twenty fold. But such taxation cannot be borne, for the people of the state have not the means of bearing it, and if their lives were at stake they could not ob tain the means. So they must consent to see all their possessions annihilated, and their families made beggars and outcasts or else they will have to set promptly in motion the fiery wheels of another revolution. As illustrative of the character of the tv ranny established over souls in Tennessee, we may mention one circumstance out of the thousands which the Tennessee papers would not dare to mention. One of first gentlemen of our city, a substantial man whose word none would question, was recently in that state on business. He repeated to us yesterday a conversation that he held with a native Tenneseean, a Union man, who deprecated secession as a deplorable blunder and a terrible crime. The two gentlemen were alone in a bar room, day to station a guard of 100 men at a point no other person being probably within a some three miles below his camp. The required number immediately went down, un- ered his voice almost to a whisper, as if he fancied the very walls had ears to hear and tongues to repeat. MATTERS IN BALTIMORE. - Appearances may be deceitful, but certainly all the ap pearances in Baltimore (says a correspondent) are those of a loyal and Union loving The American flag is everywhere dis played; no other flag is seen. Companies of soldiers march through the streets with music and the American flags are cheered as they pass, and expressions of devotion to the Union are everywhere heard in the streets. Are there no secessionists in Baltimore then? Aye, many are there, and they talk secession, too, but not openly, and not loudly. There are certain places, cer-tain club houses and coffee houses, where southern men do congregate, and where se-cession may be heard talked up fiercely. War Meeting.

On Saturday next, at 1 o'clock P. M., the citizens living in the vicinity of Cutt's school house, on the town line road between Milton and Fulton, will assemble at said school | the state, or to be transferred to the milihouse, to raise the stars and stripes, and tary service of the general government. take such action in regard to the war question as may be deemed proper. Messrs. James Armstrong, H. N. Comstock and others will be present and address the meet-

Meeting at Johnstown Centre.

The church in Johnstown Centre was filled last evening. Rev. Mr. Dixon was such minor or minors reside. The term of shairman and D R Snooper secretary. chairman and D. R. Spooner, secretary.-Mesers. Gibbs and Comstock made addresses. The choir sang several patriotic songs in a most excellent manner. The highest enthusiasm was exhibited.

The school district committee heretofore appointed to solicit subscriptions not being ready to report, were continued, and instructed to raise the fund contemplated, and empowered to call future meetings.

The Farmer's Moving.

At a large meeting of the farmers of Johnstown, Wednesday evening 21st inst., a committee was appointed to correspond with other towns to endeavor to produce such a concert of action among the farmers of Rock county as will ensure decent money for good grain. The committee appointed was A. M. Carter, D. R. Spooner, H. Cheney, R. T. Pember and H. B. Johnson,-The plan contemplated is a county meeting, and a unity of action throughout the county.

Volunteers, Attention!

The Janesville Light Guard has the minimum number of men, and wishing to fill up to the maximum number, will receive a few more members at their quarters in the court room. The company will soon be ordered to rendezvous and is now under H. M. Wheeler, Captain.

THE SOUTHERN MAIL .- An impression seems to obtain that the stoppage of the river mail to Memphis, puts a stop to all mail communication between St. Louis and Memphis. Such is not the case. The river mail was mainly for the benefit of the intermediate points. The regular mail to Memphis and the south goes by railroad as usual. We may add, that there is still a river mail to Cairo every Tuesday and Fri-

Supervisor of Johnstown .- D. R. Spooner, Esq., has been appointen chair-man of the town board of supervisors of cies occur, they shall be filled by the officer Johnstown, to fill the vacancy occasioned next in rank, until the governor shall apay the neglect of B. F. Carey to qualify.

AN INCIDENT IN CAMP .- The Milwaukee Sentinel is responsible for the following: A story is going around of a sentinel in a certain regiment who was on duty, and noticed one of his officers approach, when he asked:

"Who goes there?"

"Advance, friend, and give the counter

The word was given, but the officer said:

"instrument," when a corporal was called and the soldier was consigned to the guard The lesson intended to be conveyed, and which will possibly not be forgotten, is never, under any circumstances, to part with your gun while on guard.

FAIR WARNING.—The secessionists of the Kentucky legislature dare not go into of arming and equipping a company of solsecret session. They were told plainly if they attempted to sneak from the light of day to consumate a treasonable plot, that ed in these companies. The letter adds: their den would be entered by loyal Kentuckians, pistols and knife in hand.

No General Legislation .- The Madiion Argus of yesterday says—" The assem bly vesterday set a precedent and effectualby squelched' all legislation except such upon Gen. Butler and the Massachusetts as relates to the matters designated in the troops, as follows:—

This was regarded as a "settler" of barber, who kept a small shop in Poydras all legislation except such as is devoted to street, and emigrated to Liberia with a all legislation except such as is devoted to small competence. General Butler is his raising war funds and troops, and measures pertaining to those matters."

PREMEDITATED TREASON .- A Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune asserts that a southern naval officer was asked the other day how it was that so many of his comrades in the region were dollars, to Gov. Andrew, to be expended in ready to resign comfortable positions in the fitting out needy soldiers. United States navy for a doubtful future in the southern confederacy. He stated in reply, that as long ago as the administration of Mr. Pierce, Mr. Davis, then a member of his cabinet, wrote to many southern navy officers upon the subject of this rebel lion, and received replies compromising themselves, and hence, with the fear of an exposure which Mr. Davis had the power to make, they have thrown up their old position and joined hands with the rebel government.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE OF SECESSION LEADERS.—The Wilmington Journal thus describes Beauregard and Jeff Davis:

Gen. Besuregard has not a single Anglo a state of beastly intoxication, since the Saxon feature in his face. The whole tone capture of Fort Sumter.—Memphis Avaof his countenance and attitude would lead any one to expect him to speak in some of the languages of continental Europe. It is a French face, but of the style of Cavaignac or Lamoriciere. It is of the solid type of Frenchmen.

Mr. Davis looks young for his age, which is well over fifty. He might be a preacher, for any fire eating expression about him .-But for the square and straightly opened eyes and habitually closed mouth, firm as iron, no one would suspect Mr. Davis of being the civil and military leader of a great national movement.

The Military Bill.

The following is a synopsis of the bill reported in the senate from the joint committee of thirteen, providing "a military force for immediate service to aid in protecting and defending the constitution and the Un-

Section one provides for raising and organizing a force, not to exceed six regiments of infantry, inclusive of the three already called into the service of the state. A proviso authorizes the governor, in case these six regiments are called into the service of the United States, in his discretion, to raise two additional regiments as a re-serve force, subject to be be mustered into the service of the United States.

WHEAT-good to choice milling spring 80a88; fair Section two authorizes the governor to accept and muster into the service, volunteers to the required number, subject, upon the order of the commander in chief, to be used, first, in case of actual hostility against

Section three requires the regiments to be organized conformable to the regulations adopted for the United States army, and uniformed according to the directions of the governor.

Section four permits minors to be mustered into the regiment, upon the consent of their parents or guardians, or, having no parent or guardian, on the written consent of a justice of the peace in the town where or may disband one or all of such regiments, at his discretion.

Section five provides for the inspection of volunteers, and that they shall receive the same pay as persons of the same rank in the United States service.

Section six authorizes the governor to put such troops in a course of drill by regiments when he deems it expedient, and pro-vides they shall be carried to and from any regimental rendezvous ordered by the commander-in-chief.

Section seven provides an oath of allegiance to the United States and to the state, to be administered to the volunteers.

Section eight requires the paymaster general to give surities to be approved by the governor and state treasurer, in such sum taste and accuracy is not excelled any where, or equal s the governor may direct.

Section nine provides for the monthly payment of the troops.

Section ten relates to the same subject, In the office, and if an error is committed by the office the job will be reprinted without charge. and requires the paymaster to account to the secretary of state monthly, with vouchers for all moneys received and disbursed, which accounts are to be laid before the next legislature.

Section eleven provides for a chaplain for each regiment, with the rank and pay of captain. He is appointed by the coloof captain. He is appointed by the nel and field officers of the regiment. Section twelve provides for courts marial for all offences prescribed by the laws of the United States. Section thirteen requires the quarter master general and regimental quarter master o give bonds, as the governor shall direct. Section fourteen empowers the governor to establish one or more recruiting offices, for the enlistment of men to supply any deficiency that may occur in the regiments

Section fifteen empowers the governor, through the proper military department, to purchase and distribute all necessary militay stores, which shall be properly accounted for to the state.

Section sixteen authorizes the governor to make such compensation to the several officers of the general staff actually called into service, as shall in his opinion be just and equitable.

Section seventeen authorizes the governor to fix and designate the relative rank of the field officers of the regiments called inpoint.

Section eighteeen appropriates a sum out of the "war" fund to meet all warrants drawn in conformity with the foregoing

Three-fifths of the earth's surface is covered with w ter. Vast sums of money and the best mechanical and engineering skill has, for ages, been employed to perfect machinery to bring this universal and indisp ble clement into convenient uso.

May's Patents. Double and Single Acting Pumps.

For any depth of mining shafts and wells, ope or drilled, to 500 feet.

No specion pipes, no packing, no bolts, no pump

Are composed of two metalic cylinders and to brass values, and wrought-iron conducting pipe. Are operated by a wrought-iron lever, and I means of a compensating balance device, they work very easy by hand, wind mill or other power, at what-By. They cannot freeze.

Save Repairs, Vexation and Expense!!! 27 Those longest in use (about 2 years) need no repairs and exhibit no perceptible wear, and possess ral-uable qualities unknown in any other pumps.

May's Patents

These Excess are perfectly self-regulating and under easy control, independent of their self-governing aualities They are STRONG and DURABLE.

No pains or expense has been spaired to simplify and perfect both pumps and engines to make them brought within the last month, in New York and Datismore, at very low prices, and will be sold the same.—
The following are some of the retail prices:
Fresh Pine Apple, per jar 8 shillings.

"Rasyberries, "3" "

"Whortleberries" "3" "

"Blackberries "3" "

"Cherries, black, red and yellow, 3 shillings.
The above are put up in wide mouthed, full quart bottles, and are warranted to retain their natural flavor, and are wholly unlike dried fruit, or cooked fruit, or fruit preserved in sugar. The buttles are valuable when emptied, for putting up freels fruits again, and can be used repeatedly; they are worth 12 shillings per dozen, empty. ENRIVALLED in quality, and ECONOMICAL in price.

In a half hour at ordinary pumping speed, I supply my stock of from forty to fifty head of cattle and horses, with one of May's Patent Pumps. Well 70 feet deep, illed. I can find no funlt with this pump. and use it in place of another kind that was very often out of repair. I supply with water 690 sheep, some 60 head of cattle and 10 head of horses, with May's Patent Pump. Its great strength, apparent durability and above all the great amount of water it raises in a short time, and it easy working, gives it with me a decided preference over any other pump in the market.

Whitewater, Walworth Co., Wis., Jan. 31st, 1861. Since the 1st of October last we have been using one of May's Patent Pumps, and it gives us entire satisfac tion. Our well is 120 feet deep and the pump is worked by horse power or by hand. In addition to pumping water for stock and farm purposes, we use large quan-

Middleton, Dane county, Wis., Jan. 22d, 1861. REEVES & WADDLE. I am using one of May's Patent Pumps in pince of s deep well pump of another kind, that was often out of order and worked hard. Well 122 feet deep, 72 feet drilled in solid rock, and pump placed 101 feet from surface. Its great strength and simplicity pleases me, and am surprised and gratified with the large amoun of water raised with little laber, 6 to 8 full strokes of the lever filling a bucket. I deem it one of the mos valuable improvements of the age for raising water.

Pumps, With Engines,

I am using one of May's Patent Pumps and Self-Regula ting Wind Engine (or Mill) on one of my farms near Janesville. Well 83 feet deep. Pump and mill used together, or may be separated in a moment. One to two hours daily is sufficient to pump water for my stock Also, the puop works very easy by hand and is the first one, after trying different kinds, that gives me cutin satisfaction. Having no bolts, packing, suction pipe, o pumping rods, and being made heavy and strong, thin they must be very durable. A. HOSKINS. they must be very durable.
Janesville, Jan. 11th, 1861, I am using a wind engine, and primp of May's par ent in a well 65 feet deep. I doem them very valuable improvements, and agree with Mr. Hoskins in the above expressed opinion. I had been using a Seneca Falls pump that did not answer my purpose WM. SOHENCK. Bradford, Rock Co., Wis., Jan. 24th, 1861.

Engines.

Rock Terrace, Wis., Feb. 6th, 1861.

Since November 1858, I have been using one of May's Patent Wind Engines, pumping water from a well 136 feet drep. The Engine is a powerful one, often pump ng fifty barrels of water per day. It stands 110 fee from the well and the power is communicated from the Engine to the well, underground, I deem these Engines of great value, saving a vas nount of hard manual labor, and as their merits ar understood, think they must come into general use. E keep constantly on hand a full assortment of Plug. THE above are First Clars, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and the condition of the condition their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few quals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Encollyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, tank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past tenches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital lorice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policles issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company, CASH CAPITAL OVER - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Pelley bolders, so that the profite of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual promiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state. WHITAKER, Agent. Office in Young America Store, Myers' Block.
